A Hallelujah Wedding.

"HAPPY BILL" AND "CAPT. CROSBY."

Is It "All For Jesus!"

(Hamilton Spectator, July 14th.)

The bride was Capt. Eliza Crosby, of Collingwood, and the bridegroom Capt. Happy Bill Cooper, the irrepressible commanding officer of the Hamilton corps.

The services were begun by a prayer from Rev. Mr. Thompson, who offered up a rather curious invocation. "Oh Lord," he said, "we know that you are not averse to weddings, for did you not go as a guest to the wedding at Cana in Galilee? Now we invite you here; we know you will come and you will be welcome."

After the prayer two or three rousing hymns were sung. Major Moore then announced that the ceremony was going to take place and immediately there was bustle and excitement among the spectators and a crush towards the platform. Soon the bride and bridegroom emerged from the crowd of officers and stood opposite each other surrounded by their friends. Happy Bill's demeanor did not belie his name. His pale livid face was wreathed with smiles which broadened into audible laughter when he received playful pokes from his brother officers. The bride was nearly as self possessed as her chosen lord and master. She stood with drooping eyelids and head bent; but her face wore a quiet look of contentment. She is a nice looking person with a trim figure and a demure, pretty face. As they faced each other Major Moore said jocularly, "Now you're going to tie with your tongues what you can't untie with your teeth." Then the major put several questions to the contracting parties. The first was:

"Do you solemnly declare that you do not seek this marriage simply to please yourselves, but that you believe it will enable you to better serve and please God and work in the interests of the Salvation army?"

"I do," said Happy Bill confidently. The bride din not respond. The next question was:

"Do you promise never to allow your marriage to lessen in any way your devotion to God or to the army?"

Capt. Bill again responded in the affirmative, and again Capt. Crosby didn't speak. The major continued:

"Do you promise, whether together or apart, always to do your utmost as soldiers of the Salvation army, and never to allow it to be injured or hindered by anyone without doing your best to prevent or overcome such injury or hinderance?"

Again came the prompt response from Capt. Bill and again the bride was silent. After a pause the next question was put:

"Should either of you cease to be an efficient soldier owing to sickness, death or any other cause do you engage that the other one shall continue to the best of his or her ability to fulfil all these obligations?"

"Yes certainly," said Happy Bill, but the bride said nothing. Major Moore looked at her inquiringly but the bridegroom came to her rescue gallantly. "Oh, never mind her," said he. "She needn't speak. I'll answer for her."

"Hallelujah!" shouted the chorus behind, and there was a general jingling of tambourines and waving of banners.

Then the major said: "If you wish to be married upon these terms, and if, in the presence of God, who searches all hearts, you know of no just cause why you should not be so joined in marriage stand forward!"

As they could not stand forward any more without pushing someone off the platform the order was disregarded. But the saved pastor, who had been viewing the scene rather gloomily from the other side of the platform, came forward instead and took Major Moore's position and read the regular marriage service of the Church of England. When he made his first response Happy Bill could not contain his enthusiasm; but as soon as he uttered in a sonorous voice the all important "I do!" he waved his arms towards the crowded seats and shouted "fire a volley!" Immediately the big building rang with "hallelujahs!" "amens!" the shrill voices of the women rising high over the men's heavy bass roar. When the time came to place the ring on the bride's finger Happy Bill dived into his pocket for the hoop of gold. He fumbled for a few seconds and his face took on a look of anxiety; but presently the wonted smile beamed forth again, and with evident satisfaction he produced the ring. "The signet's all ready!" shouted Major Moore. A roar of laughter followed and of course there was a scattering fire of "hallelujahs" from the brethern and sisters who could not see what was going on. Major Coombes made one more effort with his whistle but it was no more successful than the last and he gave it up in disgust. He pocketed his mortification gracefully, however. Turning to the benches he raised his arms and said slyly, "Oh, stop, you make the captain smile!" As "the captain (Happy Bill) had been shaking with laughter this remark was too much for the risibilities of the Salvationists and they burst out afresh. After a while comparative silence was restored, and the ceremony was renewed.

"For better, for worse" said Bill repeating the words after the saved parson.

"There's no worse about it!" shouted the major—and the uproar broke out afresh.

The bridegroom then grasped the hand of his bride and vigorously pushed the ring on her finger and as he held her hand lingeringly he repeated after the parson the words to the effect that he bestowed upon her all his wordly goods. As he uttered the words he laughed outright. The ridiculousness of the idea that a Salvation officer could have any worldly goods to bestow also struck Major Coombes and he shouted ironically:

"He gives her all his wordly goods! Why, he hain't got none!"

Another burst of laughter and cheers followed this remark and the ceremony was finished before the hubbub subsided. Only the concluding words from the parson were heard. "Whom God has joined together let no man put asunder." Then followed a perfect whirlwind of cheers, all the occupants of the raised seats rising to their feet, waving their arms and straining their throats to the utmost. Even the spectators down below the platform could not withstand the enthusiasm. Many of them caught the infection and to their own surprise found themselves shouting too. After about five minutes Rev. Mr. Thompson read that portion of Scripture which sets forth the duties of wives to their husbands and of husbands to their wives. When this was concluded the brass band struck up a lively air, which they played through several times without variations. These musicians were so anxious to participate in the ceremony that they broke in with the music just as the parson had opened his Bible to read, and were restrained with some difficulty. But when they did get a chance they occupied their full share of time. At last the final thump was given to the big drum. Major Moore then stepped forward with a large Bible, which he placed in the hands of the bridegroom. He explained to the audience that Happy Bill had earned it, for it was the custom in the army to present a Bible to the first officer married in a division married in Hamilton. When he had received the Bible, Bill stooped and imprinted a kiss on the yielding lips of his bride, who blushed prettily at the situation. There was another burst of enthusiasm from the rear seats, and still another when Major Moore said that though this was the first wedding in the Hamilton corps he hoped it would not be the last. "Hallelujah," and "amen" were the ready responses from four or five hundred voices.

The bridegroom and bride then addressed the audience briefly. Happy Bill acknowledged that this was the happiest moment of his life, but that he would not feel so happy if he were not sure that what he had done would redound to the glory of God. The remarks of Mrs. Cooper could not be heard, except by a few who stood near her, but she was understood to echo the sentiments of the bridegroom.

The ambition of the majority of hallelujah lasses is to have a hallelujah wedding. "That's the way I'm going to get married," remarked one to another as they were leaving the drill shed after yesterday's ceremony. "What do you say, Nellie? Isn't it just scrumptious?"

"You bet, it's great," was the laconic but expressive reply.

The girl who asked the question was attired in the regulation uniform, and the lass who replied bore on her bosom in large letters, this legend: "All for Jesus."

THE ONTARIO BOUNDARY CASE.

On Tuesday of last week the argument on the Ontario boundary award was opened before the judicial committee of the privy council in England, and a decision was speedily rendered that the award of the commissioners was not binding. The boundaries of the province of Ontario are now being fixed by the privy council. It is now about ten years since the governments of the Dominion and Ontario agreed that the question of the disputed western and north-western boundaries of Ontario should be referred to these referees, and both governments pledged themselves to consider the determination final. Six years ago the arbitrators selected by the respective governments met, and after hearing the arguments on both sides found that the northern boundary of Ontario extended to Hudson's Bay and the western boundary to the Lake of the Woods, and that these two points should be united by a line proposed many years before by the Hudson Bay Company, namely the Albany River, and on the 3rd of August, 1878, they signed an award granting to the province of Ontario 62,000,000 acres more than the Dominion government thinks she is entitled to. The Dominion government have therefore repudiated this award and have forced a new appeal to the privy council. The questions submitted to the committee were:—

"1. Whether the Award is, or is not, under all the circumstances, binding.

"2. In case the Award is held not to settle the boundary in question, then what, on the evidence, is the true boundary?

"3. Whether—in case legislation is needed to make the decision in that case binding or effectual—Acts passed by the Parliament of Canada, and the Provincial Legislatures of Ontario and Manitoba, in connection with the Imperial Act 34 and 35 Vic. cap. 28, or otherwise, will be sufficient, or whether an Imperial Act for the purpose will be necessary."

ARCTIC EXPLORATIONS.

J. Hyatt Smith is a sensible New York clergyman—or, at least, we take him to be such by the following extract from a sermon delivered by him last Sunday. He said: "I feel American pride that we have planted the stars and stripe in the ice beyond all other nations, but let us consider the cost. All honor to DeLong and his party, dead and living; All honor to Greely, and thrice honor to his rescuers. It was an expedition of the highest order of heroism. America does not need to send any more men to the north pole; let us hear of no more official murders." Any man or party of men who may henceforth essay the impossible feat of reaching the North Pole, should not receive the slightest encouragement from either the press or the governments of the civilized world. It is a wild-goose chase, and even supposing that the pole should be reached, cui bono? Can any one point out a single advantage or benefit that would result to mankind from a successful exploration in that region? All tions have been worse than fruitless. If men must seek notoriety let their aspirations be gratified in another direction.

NORWAY AND SWEDEN.

King Oscar of Norway has been a little too autocratic of late, and his recent veto of a popular measure has almost brought about a serious disturbance in the Scandinavian peninsula. However, he saw the danger in time and by judiciously withdrawing from the position he had taken, has passed the crisis in safety. "The absolute right of kings" is a thing of the past. In these republican days, the wisest sovereigns consider the will of the people and rarely go against it. Oscar II. has been, on the whole, a wise and generous ruler. The Bernadotte family, who have occupied the thrones of Norway and Sweden since 1818, have been universally loved by their people and no line of sovereigns ever worked more indefatigably for the welfare and improvement of a country. The present king and his predecessors, Carl XV. and Oscar I., as well as the women of the noble family, have done an incalculable amount of good among the poor and afflicted of the people; in prison reform, and in the reconstruction of the army, navy and social institutions.

Reply to Examiner's Explanation.

TO THE EDITOR. — The "explanation" of the examiners in yesterday's Colonist is not such as I expected, a correction of an error made by them, but detrimental to the interests of Miss Forrest, who is placed by them much below her proper standing. The injustice done is easily understood. The late examiners deviating from an established course in this province prepared many other examination papers on the assumption that to a grade A candidate more difficult questions should be proposed than to a grade B. They decline to issue to Miss Forrest a grade A licence but they assign and degrade her higher marks fairly obtained on grade A papers to the lower rank of the B papers on which she was not examined. Therein lies a real grievance to which Miss Forrest is obliged to submit. I am sorry the examiners rushed into print with their "explanation" without at least furnishing a copy of their proceedings to the young lady, who modestly seeks but a moiety of her rights, and who deserves more encouragement than that meted to her by them. I have severed my connection with the public schools and I have no interest beyond a desire to see justice to all. I hope the examiners will think fit to retrace their steps, and when names are again published in their annual report Miss Forrest's will appear in its proper place. J. H. MACLAUGHLIN.

CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 23 — Frank Hutchings, the murderer of Nellie Hutchings, was brought into court again to-day to give the murderer an opportunity of withdrawing his former plea and substituting a plea of "not guilty." His counsel announced that his client wished to withdraw his plea of guilty. Hutchings said, "I'd rather plead guilty; but it seems I can't do as I wish, so I'll plead not guilty and stand trial to accommodate them." The prisoner's plea of not guilty was recorded.

EGYPT.

CAIRO, July 23.—The Madir of Dongola telegraphs that he defeated 5,000 followers of El Mahdi near Dabbah and captured 400 Remington rifles. The rebel losses are heavy.

EASTERN STATES.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 23.—Health officer Townsend received to-day a letter from John P. Roach, secretary of the Illinois state board of health, suggesting that in view of the reappearance of cholera in Europe, a session of the national sanitary conference, would be timely and profitable. It proposes that a session of the conference be held in Washington, on or about August 5th, and that the invitation be extended to the health officers at large in all cities.

DELAYED DISPATCHES.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, July 22.—The telegram says: The demonstration of the trades Unions at Hyde Park yesterday was the most re- [illegible] imposing event witnessed um rising to dignity. It will not do for the peers to mock or undervalue its peaceful, simple method or decry it as a paid show.

The Standard says: The behavior of the people was admirable but the demonstration has not changed the political situation in the slightest degree. The judgment of the silent and modest section of the community will not be effected.

Eastern Canada Mail.

(Per Northern Pacific Railway.)

MONTREAL, July 14. — The extensive wholesale house referred to in the Mail last week as being financially embarrassed and seeking an extension of time was that of Messrs. J. L. Cassidly & Co., the oldest china, delf and earthenware firm in the city. The stoppage was precipitated by the refusal of the cheques of the firm by the bank where its largest business was transacted. Over stocking and a heavy falling off in sales during the past two or three months are assigned reasons for the suspension. The heaviest liability is due to a glass manufacturing firm here, and is said to amount to $80,000. The following banks are interested: — Merchants', People's, Jacques Cartier, and Hochelaga.

TORONTO, July 14.—On Thursday last several boys congregated on Lake View avenue to play lacrosse. A fight ensued and one of the boys, Chas H. Martin, son of the book-keeper in Mowat & Co.'s, barristers, was knocked down and brutally kicked by another boy, Charles Thompson. Thompson was arrested and admitted to bail on his father's surety for $500. Martin lingered in great agony till this morning when he died. Thompson can't be found. An inquest will be held.

WHITBY, July 15—While playing quoits at 5:30 this evening at Leslie's Ontario Hotel, Willie Armstrong, 14 years of age, had his skull fractured with a quoit pitched by Alex. Smith of tue Bay. Little hope is entertained of his recovery.

BARRIE, July 15.—Two young men are in custody here on a charge of uttering a counterfeit bank bill on Mr. Alf. Swaisland, proprietor of the Vespra House, in this town. The bill was a Confederate one of the ten dollar denomination.

HALIFAX, July 16—Mr. Pipes, premier of Nova Scotia, has resigned, and Mr. W. S. Fielding has been called upon to form a government. Both gentlemen are Liberals.

The King of Grain Harvesters.

In the year 1883 there were 18,000 Deering Twine Binders sold, and for the present year of 1884 the manufacturers are making 25,000 of these celebrated machines. This is no baby binder, but cut a swath 6 feet 4 inches in width without the inside horse walking in the standing grain. The new Knotter for this year is the success of the age. These machines are simple, light and strong, and easier on a team than any other machine made. Sole agent for B. C., E. C. Prior, Victoria, B. C.

Gas Collector—No, sir, the bill is all right. It is according to the meter.

Gentleman—It is very strange; I certainly burned more gas than last month.

Gas Collector—Wh-what's that, sir!

Gentleman (emphatically)—I say I certainly burned more gas than that last month.

Gas Collector (turning pale and edging toward the door)—Very well, sir, very well. Don't get excited, sir; keep quiet; calm yourself. Everything will be made all right, I assure you, sir.

The collecter then bounced down the stairs and shouted for help. Four policemen responded, and moving cautiously up the stairs they secured the maniac and got him safely to a lunatic asylum. But little hopes are entertained of his recovery.

STEAMSHIP LINE

From Japan to Puget Sound.

The Tacoma Ledger says that for some time past correspondence both by mail and telegraph has been going on between parties in Japan and several gentlemen in Tacoma and elsewhere relating to the establishing of a steamship line from that country to some point on Puget Sound. A letter from Japan bearing date of June 11th says. "We must have a line from Japan to the Sound very soon. I am very closely connected with the government mail line and they are anxious to have a line running from Japan to Puget Sound, and if they find any encouragement will do so." The writer of the letter, who is a Scotchman, has been in the employ of that government for some time, and states that they have a large number of fine

CLYDE BUILT STEAMERS

Which they are desirous of pressing into service. In the same letter he says: "I expect we shall be connected with you before long with a line of steamers direct to Japan and you may see me over before long drumming up the support of yourself and friends." The Northern Pacific Railroad company have signified their willingness to do all they can to advance the project, and will give the same rates as those given the Pacific Mail steamship company by the Central Pacific railroad

Personal.

Mr. Hunter, chief engineer of the Island railway, returned to town yesterday.

Mrs. Ofner and two children and Mr. H. Bornstien and Mr. H. Brackman were passengers by the North Pacific yesterday.

Mr. W. C. Waters, representing Whittier, Fuller & Co., of San Francisco, and Mr. J. Rosenburg, of Rosenburg & Sons, New York, are at the Driard.

Mr. D. M. Hosker, the general foreman of the C. P. R. machine shops, Yale, is in Victoria on a short vacation. He reports work on railway construction as being pushed forward at a remarkable rate.

Mr. W. H. Chase, manager of the C. P. R. sawmills at Texas lake, arrived in Victoria the other day to meet his young lady from Dakota—Miss Strain. They were married last evening in Christ Church, and will proceed to their home at Texas lake on Friday morning. Mr. Chase is an energetic young man, and has made many friends in this country during the short time he has been here, and with them all we wish himself and bride the greatest of prosperity.

Miss Adleia R. Luse, the well-known elocutioniat of Portland, is at the Douglas House.

Marine.

Br. barque Alice Mary, from Victoria, arrived at Sydney July 6th.

The British barque Pacific Slope, from Moodyville, arrived at Sydney July 5th.

CALIFORNIA CROP PROSPECTS.—Crop reports have been received by the Chronicle from twenty-seven points in California, from which the estimates of the total wheat production is placed at 60,000,000 bushels, against 54,000,000 bushels in 1880. This is the largest crop ever produced in any State of the Union. The total acreage in wheat is 3,350,000. After deducting for seed and home consumption there will be a surplus of 50,000,000 bushels, or 30,000,000 centals.

DOMINION HOUSE.—Mr. Stephen Jones has built a 2-story annex of his well known hotel on Yates street near Blanchard. The addition contains 18 handsomely furnished rooms, all well lighted and ventilated. A spacious hall runs the entire length of the building. The best board and lodging are offered at reasonable rates and Mr. Jones wants it understood emphatically that families with children are not objected to.

OPPOSITION BOATS.—Yesterday morning the Eliza Anderson having delayed her sailing the steamer Geo. E. Starr waited until 11 o'clock. This gave dissatisfaction to some of her passengers who ultimately took passage by the Eliza Anderson. It is rumored that the Eliza Anderson will shortly be withdrawn; but the rumor is believed to be premature.

LOADING AT DEPARTURE BAY.—A day or two ago we stated that the Remijio was loading coal here brought down by the barge C. L. Taylor on account of the number of vessels loading at Departure Bay. Among these are ships Chandos, Belvidere, Rice and Astoria, the steamer Empire and the barques Germania and Acturus.

FIGHTING BOOK AGENTS.—Mr. Donnovan and Mr. Smith, rival school book agents, had a fist-fight at Olympia over the respective value of the publications which they represented. Donnovan, who had the best of the contest, was arrested for assault and battery and acquitted.

THE ISLAND RAILWAY.—Mr. Perry's party are locating the line along the head of Finlayson Inlet. Mr. Gray's party have nearly reached Oyster Harbor, Chemainus.

What Some People Say.

That 271 seats for the Tivoli Comic Opera have been engaged, the largest number ever obtained in this city.

That another young fellow who "didn't know it was loaded" has killed a girl in Pennsylvania.

That Mrs. Langtry tackled the electrical girl in New York, and in two minutes lay on the floor with her dress torn down her back. Five strong men next essayed to hold a chair, but the electrical girl shocked them all by taking it from their grasp with ease.

That a beautiful young lady in Cleveland has destroyed her complexion by the use of arsenic. Her face is all broken out in yellow blotches.

That "when I married Paul," said an old lady, "he was made to say, 'With all my worldly goods I thee endow.' He was keeping a dry goods store at the time, and I thought all the goods belonged to me, but I soon found out the words only meant one calico dress a year."

That it is of immense satisfaction to the man who gets his eye poked out by the tip of a parasol to know that sunshades are trimmed with crape worth $8 a yard. —Boston Transcript.

That G. W. A. Lange & Son offer twenty settlers a home and a fortune. *

THAT MESSRS. J. B. FERGUSON & CO. HAVE A STOCK OF CAGE'S NEW SCHOOL BOOKS JUST TO HAND. SPECIAL TERMS TO THE TRADE.

That a fresh lot of San Juan strawberries and a lot of chickens (broilers) were received this morning at Beauchamp's, Yates street.

That the King Tye Co. are leading manufacturers and importers of clothing, groceries, etc.

That Clothing, Hats and Underclothing are very cheap at W. & J. Wilson's Look at their prices and you will see that their stock is the best value in Victoria. *

That a young lady in Oakland, Cal., Miss Josie Edwards, a graduate of Mills' Seminary, the other day attempted to shoot a young man who, after paying her considerable attention, married another lady. The shots did not take effect, and the affair has been hushed up as much as possible.

That there are now about twenty societies in active operation in Great Britain and Europe in the interest of the food-reform movement, the supporters of which are opposed to eating animal food. Numerous restaurants are open in England, Germany and France where neither flesh, fowl nor fish is served, the varieties of dishes of cereals, vegetables and fruits extending to several hundreds, and ranging in price from a penny upward.

That if you notice a young man walk with a young lady their relationship can be determined as follows: If his hands are both jammed into his pants pockets, she's his sister; but if his arms assume the picture of the position of the handles on a sugar-bowl, she's some other young man's sister.

"PATRONIZE HOME INDUSTRY." Rubber Stamps of all kinds made to order. R. T. WILLIAMS, Broad street.

That the Leading clothing and furnishing House in the Province is the Scotch House, A. MCLEAN & Co. Established 1862. 3m*

That for best value in clothing, furnishing goods, trunks, &c., go to the Mechanics' Store, Johnson street, W. G. CAMERON.

That THOMAS NICHOLSON, Family Grocer, corner Douglas and Johnson streets, has a new stock of Groceries and Provisions, Lard, Hams and Bacon, packed by the famous house of Logus and Dierenger, Oregon city. Goods delivered. Fine Wines and Liquors. Prices low *3m

That six young ostriches were recently hatched by an incubator at the Anaheim farm, California. One of the female ostriches is hatching a nest of eggs in the good old-fashioned way. California is proud of her tropical birds.

That John A. Blake, the liberal member of parliament for Waterford, has resigned, being unable to follow Parnell's leadership.

That the mind cure craze has progressed so far in Boston that cultured men and women have propounded the opinion that poisons are only dangerous to human life because people get scared and think the dose will kill them. Of course, then, if a Boston man swallows a little arsenic or strychnine without knowing it, and no one tells him what he has done, it will not hurt him.

That at a hotel in Spokane Falls a Chinese boy and a waiter girl were romping. The Chinese boy indelicately put his hand on the waiter girl. The landlady and one of the boarders gave the boy such a beating that he went crazy, and two days later was found wandering about the prairie. The Chinese and many whites are incensed at his treatment.

That at Winnipeg rents are tumbling. The Cauchon block is almost unoccupied, so far as the ground floor is concerned. Cauchon is a ruined man.

That Princess Beatrice is a martyr to rheumatism.

That the only theatre in the province worthy the name is the Theatre Royal at Barkerville. If the present local scheme should fail, send to Barkerville and bring that building down in sections.

Supreme Court.

(In Chambers.)

(Before Hon. H. P. P. Crease, J.)

WEDNESDAY, July 23.

Good vs. Onderdonk—This is an action to recover $250.50 for arrears of salary and damages for wrongful dismissal.

The defendant now applied to have the action tried in the county court at Yale. On behalf of the plaintiff it was contended that he had a statutory right to have the action tried in the superior court.

His lordship dismissed the application; costs to be plaintiff's costs in any event.

Mr. Fell (Fell & Mills), for plaintiff.

Mr. Helmcken (Drake, Jackson & Helmcken), for defendant.

RUNAWAY.—Yesterday afternoon, about 3 o'clock, a horse attached to a grocer's cart, belonging to Mr. Jos. Gosnell, started from the yard of Mr. Turner's, on Chatham street, while the driver was away delivering goods. Little damage was done beyond the upsetting of the cart, which threw the horse on his back into a ditch, where he lay kicking, until after much trouble he was extricated from his awkward position.

THE WEEKLY COLONIST to-morrow.

B. C. Cathedral Bazaar.

The large hall, lately erected on View street as a temporary church, previous to the building of the new cathedral, was thrown open yesterday morning for a grand bazaar, given by the ladies of the Catholic Church in aid of the building fund. From the opening the hall is crowded with visitors anxious to see and buy the beautiful articles prepared by the tasteful hands of the ladies. The admiration depicted upon the faces of those present showed how highly they appreciated what they beheld. The hall was profusely decorated with vines, evergreens and flowers of all sorts. The perfume arising from the flower stand in the centre of the room is pleasant in the extreme. At the entrance is the post office, and by the number of letters coming through the mail one could well imagine that the postmistress was kept very busy distributing the missives. At noon a sumptuous lunch was set, and all who tested the articles expressed themselves more than satisfied with the good cheer. The tables are elegantly arranged, and the articles to be drawn for surpassed the highest expectations of those present. Among the most notable is a five o'clock tea-table, which is in charge of Mrs. Keast. It is of pale blue and pink satin, trimmed with ribands. On the cover are a number of wild roses, painted in water colors. This is the handiwork of Mrs. Tilton, and is very elegant indeed. A number of hand-painted wall banners in Latin executed by the Sisters attracted much attention. Mrs. Geo. Wise's beautiful fire screen claimed a great deal of admiration; also a statue of the Virgin Mary, which is for raffle. It is in a large glass case, and the person who obtains it will be very fortunate indeed. A large doll dressed as a bride was very handsome, being in cream colored satin and cream colored lace with a rich silk tissue vail over all. The ladies conducting the bazaar and occupying the various stalls are

Mr. T. J. Burnes, manageress.

FANCY TABLES.—Mrs. Charlton, Mrs. Tilton, Mrs. Keast, Mrs. Lubbe, Mrs. L. G. McQuade, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. J. Schl, Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. Van Volkenburgh, Mrs. Nicholson, Mrs. Kinsala, Miss McDowall, Miss Wilkinson, Miss K. Burns and Miss Howard.

CANDY STALL.—Miss Petrie, Misses Cameron.

SODA WATER STALL.—Miss Burke, Miss Madigan and Miss Van Volkenburg.

TOY STALL.—Mrs. Kelly, Miss Kelly, Mrs. Fletcher, Missos Campbell.

LUNCH TABLE.—Mrs. Geiger, Mrs. Bently, Mrs. Walther, Mrs. Madigan, Mrs. Briscott and Mrs. Sullivan.

FLOWER STAND.—Miss Wilke, assisted by Miss Schl.

The young lady assistants are: The Misses Cameron, Misses Madigan, Miss Burke, Miss McDowell, Misses Van Valkenburgh, Misses Campbell, Miss McNiffe, Miss Stewart, Miss Downes, Misses Philips, Miss McTeague, Miss Riedl, Miss Burns, Miss Jameson, Miss Joyce, Miss Schl, Miss Farron, Miss Broderick, Miss Kelly, Miss Dickson.

Father Jonkeau was present during the evening as well as a number of rev. gentlemen. The Victoria brass band discoursed a number of waltzes and polkas in their usual style which, it is useless to say, is good.

The hall will be opened again to-day at 12 o'clock, when a hot lunch will be provided by the ladies to which all are welcomed.

County Court.

(Before Sir M. B. Begbie, C. J., sitting as County Court Judge.)

WEDNESDAY, July 23.

Turner, Beeton & Co. vs. John McGinnis. In this case the sheriff seized the goods of the defendant, under a writ of execution; the defendant claimed exemption not exceeding $500, under the homestead acts of 1867 and 1873. On the 16th inst a summons was taken out to show cause, and the same now came up for hearing.

Mr. Pollard and Mr. Bole, for judgment debtor, contended that the right was clear, and that the order would issue as of course.

Mr. Eberts, for judgment creditor, asked for a postponement till the next county court at New Westminster, on the grounds, among others, that there was an interpleader pending.

After considerable discussion his lordship ordered that the sheriff abandon $500 of the seized goods, and as to the costs that the sheriff was only entitled to get the actual cost of the seizure and costs of one man in possession while there under order of the court. The decision is one of importance.

REV. MR. BARSS.

He is Ordained at Wolfville, N.S.

Walter Barss, M. A., pastor elect of the Calvary Baptist church, Victoria, B. C., was ordained at Wolfville, Nova Scotia, the seat of Acadia College, on July 2nd. There were seventeen ministers and thirty laymen present in the council. Among the ministers were Rev. A. W. Sawyer, D.D., president of Acadia College; Rev. Prof. E. A. Crawley, D.D.; Rev. D. M. Welton, D.D., Ph. D. professor in Toronto Baptist College; Rev. Prof. Keirstead, M.A.; Rev. S. B. Kempton, M.A.; Rev. T. A. Higgins, M.A.

The examination of Mr. Barss was very satisfactory, and he was unanimously ordained a minister of the gospel. The sermon was preached by Rev. S. B. Kempton, the ordaining prayer was by Rev. Dr. Welton; the hand of fellowship by Rev. H. Foshay, the charge to the candidate by Rev. Dr. Sawyer.

Mr. Barss is a graduate of Acadia College, where he has taken the M. A. degree, and a graduate also of Rochester Theological Seminary, N. Y., and is a young man of much promise. He and Mrs. Barss expect to begin work in Victoria in the course of a few weeks.

DID NOT GO.—The Tivoli Opera Company did not get off for Victoria yesterday afternoon, though baggage had been packed and the people were at the dock. One report has it that Walter Keys and two or three of the principal singers had been subpœned as witnesses in the trial of F. A. Howard, which comes up this week; another is that it was a different sort of a legal document; while a third report, and vouched for as true, is that a $400 guarantee, which had been promised from Victoria and was due yesterday morning by express, did not arrive.—Oregonian.

ELOCUTIONARY ENTERTAINMENT.—Adelia R. Luse, the well known elocutionist of Portland, O., and late of Philadelphia, will give a very enjoyable entertainment at Temperance Hall, Pandora avenue, on Monday evening, July 28th. Selections both grave and gay. Admission 25 cents; commencing at 8 o'clock. *

RECOVERY.—Miss Wilcox, who was shot by George Ellery on Saturday, is recovering the use of her arm, but the shot have not yet been removed. It is hoped by Dr. Robotham that no permanent injury will result.

THE PACIFIC PROVINCE.

A STRONG ANTI-CANADIAN SENTIMENT EXISTING.

But no Feeling in Favor of Secession or Annexation.

(Toronto News.)

"I see from an interview with a Winnipeger in the News the other day that the people of the Northwest are very enthusiastic Canadians," said Mr. Thomas Kerr, inspector of the Standard Life Assurance Company, who has just returned from a business trip to British Columbia.

"Yes, a large section of the people at any rate," said the News man. "How is British Columbia in that respect?"

"Well, I can't say so much for British Columbia," said Mr. Kerr. "The people there are rather anti-Canadian."

"Do they favor secession from the Dominion!"

"No. They are strongly opposed to secession and annexation, but they say the Dominion should be called the Dominion of British North America instead of the Dominion of Canada. They are British in sentiment rather than Canadian, but I think their opposition to the Canadian idea will die out as we become better acquainted. The completion of the Canadian Pacific railway and the consequent influx of Canadians will have a wonderful effect upon the Pacific province, and I predict that in twenty five years it will be as Canadian as Ontario or Manitoba. Already there are a number of Canadians there, and there are no more enthusiastic Canadians anywhere. I say Canadians, meaning eastern Canadians. Any person born in British Columbia is really just as much a Canadian as you are, for British Columbia is as much Canada as Ontario, but the native born population forms a very small part of the whole population, which is mostly British, many of the leading citizens having come out in the employ of the Hudson Bay Co. They are an enterprising people, and say they only want a railway to make things hum."

"Is their accent British?"

"Well, the native born British Columbians, that is to say the Canadians, are just like other Canadians, but the old country people are just as British in sentiment, appearance and language as they ever were."

"Are the native born British Columbians Canadian in sentiment?"

"No. They have a Canadian accent, but they have no Canadian sentiment, but that will come all right in time."

"Many Americans there?"

"Very few Americans. There are people of all nations there, and especially Chinamen. The people are divided on the question. The employers say they couldn't get along without them. The employes are bitterly opposed to them. Many Chinamen are employed as domestic servants. They make from $10 to $20 per month in that capacity. Victoria is a fine city, presenting a fine appearance from the harbor and it claims to have the finest climate all the year around of any city in the world. There is no winter there of any consequence and the summers are not very hot. The population is about 10,000. New Westminster, on the mainland, about 85 miles away, can be reached by boat in eight hours. It has a population of about 3,000 and there are great canning establishments there. There are situated the provincial penitentiary and the insane asylum. It is, I think, somewhat more Canadian than Victoria. Port Moody can be reached by stage from New Westminster in about two hours. The Port Moody stage leaves New Westminster three or four times a day. The city of Port Moody consists mostly of stumps. There are only about thirty buildings altogether, but as the terminus of the Canadian Pacific railway it will probably some day be the greatest city on the Pacific coast of Canada. There is already telegraph and telephone connection, and they have a newspaper. A wealthy Scotchman who lived for some years in Japan is making arrangements for the building of a dry dock, and proposes to carry on a large business with Japan."

"Do the British Columbians do much business with Eastern Canada?"

"Yes, a good deal, considering that there is no railway connection. Montreal has done considerable business with British Columbia for some years, and of late some Toronto houses have begun to push their goods there. Oh, it is a province that Canadians should be proud of. Beautiful scenery, roses in December, sea bathing in April, lots of coal, magnificent pasturage, and some good agricultural lands. Ten cents is the smallest coin used, and $20 gold pieces are common. Canadian bank bills are at a discount. As an indication of the industrious character of the people, it may be noted that there are very large amounts deposited in the government savings bank at Victoria. There is a Chinese bank there, too. I was treated very courteously by the people, and hope to visit the Pacific province again."

"THE TENTED FIELD."

The Batteries Go into Camp.

The three batteries at headquarters mustered at the drill shed last evening for the purpose of marching out for the annual training. The turnout was very good, there being present on parade the full complement of thirty-two men to each battery. After falling in a few preparatory movements were gone through, and Major Dupont made a short address in which he warned the men that each had the reputation of the battery in his hands, and counselled them to be obedient to orders and attentive to their duties. The battalion was then formed into column with the band at the head, and to the strains of lively music moved off for the camping grounds. The following officers were present: Major Dupont in command; Capt. Wolfenden, adjutant; Capt. Dorman, quartermaster; Lieut. Gamble in command of No. 2 battery; Capt. Raymur with Lieut. Wake in command of No. 3; Capt. Prior and Lieuts. Nicholles and Snowden in command of No. 4. Upon reaching the place selected the men were told off into guards, fatigue parties, etc., and while the sentinels paced their rounds the remainder of the force went through tent-pitching drill. For several hours after reaching the camp quite an animated scene was presented by the men as they went about their various duties to the enlivening strains of music discoursed by the band. The camp is situated to the northeast of Beacon Hill near Cook street. There are 21 tents besides the guard and officers' mess tents, etc. No. 2 occupies the northernmost row, No. 3 the middle and No. 4 the southern. Altogether there are about 125 men under canvass.

THE OPERA.—On the arrival of Mr. Kimrosa in Portland he will communicate with Mr. B. Goldstein, business manager of the troupe, who is now in this city, as to the opening night. Seats already reserved will hold good for that night.

H. M. S. CONSTANCE sailed last evening for the south in the track of the Heroine.

Municipal Council.

WEDNESDAY, July 23.

Last night the regular meeting of the city council was held. Present his worship the mayor and a full board with the exception of Couns. McKillican and McCulloch.

SALARIES.

Coun. Gowen suggested that $75 in place of $60 be named as the salary of the cemetery caretaker in the by-law.

Coun. Vigelius thought the city surveyor was under paid at $100; when the by-law came up he would move that the amount be raised to $125.

His worship said these matters were passed by resolution. They should come up in their proper place.

The minutes were adopted as read.

COMMUNICATIONS.

From John Morton, contractor, asking permission to close James Bay bridge for nine days during repairs, as being unsafe. Granted.

From Mr. Hett, stating that Mr. Collins asked for a sidewalk on Store street opposite his property. Referred to city surveyor.

From J. Hamilton Gray, of the Chinese commission, stating that having learned from Mr. Chapleau that he would be here in a short time to open the commission, he asked for a statement of taxes paid by them; number of infractions of sanitary by-law, and number of children admitted to public schools and other matters be prepared.

Coun. Gowen moved the matter should lie over for further discussion.

Coun. Vigelius seconded the motion, especially as there would be considerable trouble and expense in preparing such information.

Coun. W. A. Robertson thought that if the Dominion government wanted such information they should procure it at their own expense.

Coun. Boyd thought that the council should assist the commissioners in every way, and strengthen the hands of the members for the city. He would suggest that Judge Gray be informed that Mr. Russell would be ready to furnish any assistance in his power.

It was finally resolved that communication be received, and Mr. Gray be written to, stating that the council would furnish any information in their power.

From Robelaire & Whiteway, asking to use part of Pandora avenue for building purposes. Granted.

From A. Lawson, for use of portions of Douglas and Courtenay streets, for building purposes, and asking permission to dig a drain in the vicinity of Humboldt street.

Coun. Vigelius moved that the request be granted as to building purposes, but as to digging a drain, that the applicant deposit $25 with the treasurer for the safe completion of the work, to be afterwards refunded.

Coun. Gowen said that serious accidents had occurred through contractors not taking proper precautions.

The motion was carried.

From S. Duck, M. P. P., and Robert Beaven stating they were in receipt of a letter from the council of the 17th inst; that they had addressed the government on the subject of reserved lands. The copy of the letter was enclosed.

Coun. Gowen moved that the clerk be instructed to thank Mr. Beaven and Mr. Duck for their information. Carried.

Coun. Wriglesworth said that it was singular the city members had not looked after the matter when it was being dealt with at New Westminster.

From C. J. Phillips, chief engineer, calling attention to the necessity of repairing the covers of the fire tanks. Referred to fire wardens.

Coun. Wriglesworth moved that the sum of $2,500 be paid to Mr. McMicking and the city barrister be instructed to have the agreement signed and placed in the hands of some bank until completed, or that the treasurer be directed to arrange with the bank for the whole amount of $12,800.

His worship asked where was the money to come from?

Coun. Gowen seconded the motion and spoke of the advantages in economy to the city. The $2,500 was for the purpose of binding the bargain for the electric light.

Coun. Boyd thought it would be best to read the opinion of the city barrister on this question.

The city clerk read the opinion. I stated the corporation had power to take over the light at the price of $12,800 if the money could be paid out of the current revenue; but that a loan would have to be raised in the usual way.

Coun. Gowen said Drake & Jackson and Davie & Pooley were of opinion that it was legal to take the light over, the question having been submitted to the people, and raise the money in any way necessary.

His worship—How can we spend next next year's revenue?

Coun. Gowen contended this had been done in former years. He thought some decided action should be taken.

His worship read the 158 clause of the statute in support of his opinion.

Coun. Vigelius said this question had already been submitted to the people, and it was only necessary to raise the money. The ratepayers wanted to see an extension of the light.

His worship said that an engine twice the size would be wanted.

Coun. Wriglesworth said he had opinions from Drake & Jackson and Davie & Pooley, that the council had a right to raise the money in any way they choose.

The matter was temporarily laid over.

WASH-HOUSE BYLAW.

Coun. Gowen moved that the wash-house bylaw be read a second time time.

The bylaw was read accordingly.

Coun. Vigelius was opposed to the by-law; it would be better to remove the wash houses outside the city, even if the city did lose some revenue.

The bylaw passed its second reading.

ELECTRIC LIGHT.

The city clerk read the opinion of the city barrister again at the request of Coun. Wriglesworth.

Opinions were also read from Davie & Pooley to Mr. McMicking stating that they believed that the council had power to raise the money. The electors must have known that in authorizing them to purchase they gave them the power to raise the money.

Drake & Jackson in their opinion stated that the council having resolved to purchase the light could do so without any further reference to the people.

Coun. Wriglesworth said it was his intention that evening to move the first reading of a bylaw to raise a loan for water works, electric light and other purposes.

Coun. W. A. Robertson thought that the electric light should be left as a legacy to the next council.

Coun. Gowen said the ratepayers were in favor of the purchase, and the matter should not be left over.

The city clerk was instructed to look over the minutes to see how the mayor voted on the proposal to purchase the light.

The motion was finally carried 6 to 1, Coun. Boyd not voting.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The report from Supt. of Police in reference to a lunatic named Rogers who came over from the other side was taken up.

Coun. Wriglesworth thought he ought to be put on the San Francisco boat.

His worship thought that these matters were for the health officer.

Coun. Gowen spoke of the duties of fire wardens and chief engineer. He had been round the town and found that buildings had been erected which should not have been, especially three houses in the neighborhood of Store street belonging to Mr. Montobio. There were also other nuisances. Some one should be appointed to act with the sanitary committee and fire wardens.

Coun. Wriglesworth moved that the sanitary committee have power to employ a man during the next month to look after buildings and other matters.

His worship said that the financial statement did not show where the money was to come from.

Coun. Wriglesworth said his worship interfered with everything.

Motion ruled out of order.

REPORT.

The report of the city surveyor was read concerning a sidewalk on Quadra and Johnson streets, which required to be moved some three feet, to enable Mr. Mathews to get his lines. Received and adopted.

From W. Jackson, health officer, stating there was no nuisance at Mr. Philips' premises, James Bay. Received and filed.

From same, expressing same opinion as to soap factory on Humboldt street.

From the city surveyor, reporting on various street improvements, with estimates as to their cost.

Coun. Vigelius moved the sidewalk on Douglas and Government streets be deferred, and that the sidewalk on Blanchard be laid. Carried.

SANITARY.

From Sanitary Officer Flewin, on several nuisances. Received and notices ordered to be issued.

WATER WORKS REPORT.

From the experts appointed to examine Mr. Hendry's scheme for the improvemene of the water works, which was virtually the same as that published June 12, 1880, approving of the same.

Coun. Wriglesworth moved that the report be received and adopted. Carried.

PRINTING

Coun. Boyd moved that one of the evening papers have the by-laws to publish as well as the morning papers, alternately, and that the Times get the two by laws to be now published in the Standard.

Coun. Wriglesworth said that all by-laws ought to be published in the Gazette.

His worship said that he would take the matter as a notice of motion.

AGRICULTURAL MONEY.

Coun. J. Robertson enquired as to the money to be given for the agricultural hall.

Coun. Boyd said if they built where they were going to build they did not deserve the money at all. There was a close seven foot fence erected which would be an eye sore.

Coun. Wriglesworth moved that all work on Beacon Hill be suspended until a statement of expenditure was made. Carried.

Coun. Vigelius gave notice of motion that in the remuneration bylaw the salary of the city surveyor be put at $125 per month and that of the cemetery caretaker at $75 per month

Coun. Vigelius asked what had become of the house at the water works.

Coun. Wriglesworth said a visit at an early date was advisable as it gave councillors an immense deal of information.

Coun. Gowen moved that the mayor and councillors be invited to pay a visit to the water works at the earliest date. Carried.

Coun. W. A. Robertson moved that advertisements for an auditor be inserted in the newspapers. Carried.

Coun. Wriglesworth said it would be necessary to draw up a bylaw to raise the necessary loan for improvements, and that a special meeting be held in connection therewith.

Coun. W. A. Robertson gave notice of motion to amend the woollen mill bylaw.

Council then adjourned.

Municipal Police Court.

Before Hon. A. F. Pemberton.

WEDNESDAY, July 23.

A GAMBLING CASE.

Mr. Theo. Davie said he had been notified that the gamblers' case, remanded from the 13th of May, would come up today, and application made to confiscate the property taken. The defendant Laing was arrested for playing an unlawful game in a common gaming house. Two cases were heard, and one against Cooper dismissed. It was agreed, however, to state a case for the supreme court, and though the case was drawn out the matter was dropped. The defendant was not present but he appeared on his behalf.

His honor asked if Mr. Rudge was present and was answered in the negative.

Mr. Davie said Mr. Pollard had informed him the matter would not be proceeded with, the informations in the case had been sworn to and there was no new evidence.

Supt. Bloomfield said in the case of Laing he asked the bail be escheated. He would also ask that the gaming implements taken be destroyed. In the cases of Cameron and Cooper they were taken under a warrant in a common gaming house.

Mr. Davie said it would be inconsistent after the proceedings had been dropped to grant the application of the superintendent.

The matter was here dropped for a few minutes and finally adjourned till to-morrow.

HAWKING WITHOUT LICENSE.

W. G. Lucker was charged with hawking fish without a license.

Defendant pleaded not guilty.

H. Brown deposed seeing defendant's man delivering fish from a wagon but did not see him receive any money.

Bernard Wrede, of the Vancouver House, stated he bought three salmon from the man and paid 25 cents each. He gave no order.

Mr. Mills here said he had just received instructions and asked that the case be adjourned till to-morrow, which was granted.

CHINESE ABDUCTION CASE.

The case of Ah Foug and Ah Ley, charged with abducting three Chinese women, was continued.

Mr. Walls appeared for the prosecution and Mr. Mills for the defence.

At the request of Mr. Mills all witnesses except those in court were ordered to withdraw.

On the interpreter being sworn Mr. Mills contended that the city clerk had no power to administer the oath.

Ah Ying, sworn, stated she came from China a few weeks ago in the ship that had small pox. When she came she went to Look Den's house; the woman Sam Sue was with her. She was willing to stay. Two prisoners and a white man came to the house; they lifted them up and put them in a carriage; she then was sewing buttons on; they had a candle; the woman Sam Sue and Ah Doan and Choy On were there. When the men entered they did not speak. Ah Fong lifted her up and put her in a carriage; she did not want to go; the prisoners got in; there were four Chinamen and three women in the carriage. Chin Ah Yune and Lie Hong were the other men. She had one shoe on and no stockings. The drove far off and put them in an old cabin; Ah Fong remained with them; in the cabin there was nothing but old lumber and bamboo; the carriage went away; they remained in the cabin over an hour; a Chinaman brought them shoes and stockings. It was rainy; the men took them down to the match factory; when they were in the carriage they cried; the man put his hand over her mouth and pointing a knife at her told her to stop crying; he treated the other girls in the same manner; it was so dark she could not tell which man it was that threatened and pointed the knife; it was the knife produced in court; three stayed at the match factory that night and next day.

Mr. Walls here asked the witness if one of the Chinamen attempted to take liberties with them.

Mr. Wall objected to this as being outside the offence charged.

Witness identified the knife. They were put in a room and told not to cry. A short follow threatened them with the knife; prisoners were present; they were afterwards put in a boat by a white man; they paddled off; it was dark.

Choy On, another of the girls being sworn, mainly corroborated the evidence of the preceding witness as to the facts of their being taken away, and stated that she had sold her house in China to come to British Columbia with Mrs. Sam Sue.

Sam Sue, the old woman in whose charge the girls were, deposed she neither bought nor sold them, or used them for the purpose of prostitution; the youngest girl who was sick was her daughter; Ah Ying the first witness had borrowed $100 from her.

This witness was examined by Mr. Mills, on Mr. Walls declining to do so.

This concluded the evidence for the prosecution and the court adjourned till to-morrow.

☞ The attention of intending Assurers is called to the advantages specially offered by this Association.

THIS ASSOCIATION MERITS THE CONFIDENCE THAT THE PUBLIC IS REPOSING IN IT FROM THE FOLLOWING FACTS:

The Security offered to Policy-holders is unsurpassed by any Company doing business in Canada.

It has no schemes of insurance, but the well-established lines, hence the Policy-holders cannot be misled as to their contracts.

Its statements to the public can be readily understood, its cash statement showing every item of income and how expended.

Its position is ascertained annually from a detailed valuation in which every item of liability is included.

Its progress has been unexampled in the history of insurance in Canada.

Its policies are indisputable after three years and non-forfeitable after two years' existence.

Its profits are distributed upon an equitable basis. The profits to one class of policy-holders are not lessened to give larger profits to any other class, which method affords superior advantages over the uniform bonus plan of distribution.
